Q4 Many state legislatures have been passing laws to restrict the right to vote. In response many U.S. Senators have introduced legislation designed to protect our right to vote and get dark money out of politics. The Freedom to Vote Act would set up nation-wide rules to make sure everyone who is eligible to vote can do so and get dark money out of our elections; the John Lewis Voting Rights Advancement Act would ensure more state voting restrictions don't target communities of color. Do you support or oppose legislation that gets dark money out of our elections and makes certain that everyone who is eligible to vote has the right to do so?

Support 53%
Oppose 28%
Not sure 19%
